

Saskatoon Crisis Intervention Service

Mobile Crisis Worker

The Saskatoon Crisis Intervention Service is a professional community based organization that provides 24-hour crisis services for individuals and families in distress.

We are currently recruiting for a casual Crisis Worker. Note: this is not a summer job but is year-round. Only those available year-round need apply.

This position provides direct response on the telephone or in person to situations including child abuse and neglect, suicide intervention and mental health/addictions, domestic and family problems. Crisis Workers respond as a member of a team and also work independently. This is a shift-work position.

Must be able to work days, evenings, nights and weekends.

The work is both challenging and rewarding. Excellent benefits package after 300 hours.

Qualifications:

- Must have a 4-year Bachelor of Social Work or Bachelor of Indigenous Social Work University Degree from an accredited Faculty of Social Work
- Must have a valid driver's license (Driver's Abstract required) and computer skills.
- Must agree to a Criminal Record Check including Vulnerable Sector Search.
- In recognition of the various vulnerable populations served, we encourage up to date vaccinations.

Terms of Employment:

- Casual year-round position
- Starting wage: $28.61 per hour

How to Apply:

Submit cover letter, resume and two references in a Word document to:

Rita Field
Executive Director
Saskatoon Crisis Intervention Service Inc.
313 Ontario Avenue
Saskatoon, SK S7K 1S3
Fax: (306) 664-1974
Email: resume@saskatooncrisis.ca

Only applicants selected for interviews will be contacted.